

Egg Drop Activity for Teaching Voice
Adapted from Terry DeBarger, NNWP Consultant

Drop an egg dramatically from a high point in your room (standing on a desk). Depending on your tolerance for messes, you may want to put a plastic bag down first. Assign each student or group a relationship to the egg. They will need to craft a response to the egg drop from the point of view of one of these characters.

Chicken who laid the egg

Farmer who raised the chicken

Grocer who sold the egg (or was going to sell it)

Reporter who witnessed the event

Rooster (father of the egg)

Other egg from the same carton

The floor

The school custodian

Other chicken (friend of chicken you laid the egg)

The Easter Bunny

A baby chick
