

Nevada Academic Content Standards

The resources below have been created to assist teachers' understanding and to aid instruction of this standard.

College and Career Readiness (CCR) Anchor Standard	Standard: RF.K.1c - Understand that words are separated by spaces in print.
	Questions to Focus Learning How does knowledge of the organization and basic features of text support beginning readers? Conventions of print influence the physical structure of written language and text organization. Student Friendly Objectives Knowledge Targets I can identify a word. I know there are spaces between words. Vocabulary between identify space word Teacher Tips Print Concepts through Shared Poetry Reading - Students will learn to read familiar nursery rhymes and point to the words to develop one-to-one correspondence within print. Shared Writing Experience - The teacher in this video models through shared writing several concepts of print which include left to right directionality and spaces in between words. Vertical Progression

The above information and more (e.g., additional resources) can be accessed for free on the Wiki-Teacher website.